

As a result of examining the overall perception of Guri City, "welfare facilities are close by, so they can be easily used," "The opportunity to receive regular health care (health checkups, vaccinations, etc.) is being provided," and "The driver makes concessions for pedestrians to pass safely at intersections or crosswalks."

<Table IV-> General Perception of Guri City1

(Unit: Dot)

Classification	Average	Standard deviation
At intersections or crosswalks, the driver makes concessions for pedestrians to pass safely.	3.13	.577
The neighborhood I live in now has a low risk of crime and is safe.	3.12	.508
Public toilets are clean and convenient to use because the number is sufficient.	2.93	.678
Special means of transportation are provided for the vulnerable (elderly, disabled, etc.).	2.91	.679
I know of other types of housing facilities for old age in addition to the houses I currently live in.	2.75	.741
The house is structured to move freely.	3.08	.618
It is easy to get information about the events held in Guri City.(How to participate in local events, how to use convenience facilities, how to use transportation, etc.)	2.95	.633
There are enough transportation to participate in various events and attractions.	2.96	.652
There are various social activities (e.g., religion, culture, hobbies, leisure, volunteer activities, etc.) that the elderly can participate in.	2.88	.644
I have friends, family, or relatives who I can talk to with my heart out.	3.05	.630
Organizations and institutions in Guri and Guri are implementing various policies to reflect the needs and preferences of the elderly and the elderly.	2.87	.649
Proper public, volunteer and private services are being provided to the disadvantaged and the elderly.	2.82	.678

Classification	Average	Standard deviation
In various media and society, people respect the elderly and recognize them as valuable beings.	2.92	.648
Guri City is implementing various policies for generational integration.	2.83	.678
There are many opportunities for the elderly to participate in volunteer work.	2.96	.598
In public places such as government agencies and libraries in Guri, computers and the Internet can be used for free or at low prices.	2.92	.663
There are convenient means of transportation for medical facilities to be near or to come and go.	3.11	.561
If you need help in your daily life, such as housework and care, I think you will be able to get help through county offices, community centers, and welfare institutions.	2.99	.610
Opportunities to receive regular health care (health checkups, vaccinations, etc.) are being provided.	3.14	.520
Welfare facilities are within easy reach.	3.16	.543

In Guri City, 37.9% of respondents said illegal parking on pedestrian roads was the most inconvenient when walking, followed by 32.4% of pedestrian roads (such as bumpy roads).

<Table IV-> Inconvenience when walking2

(Unit: Name, %)

Classification	Number of respondents (name)	an effective percentage
Walkway inconvenience	176	32.4%
Illegal parking on the pedestrian road	206	37.9%
Short crosswalk pedestrian signal time	59	10.9%
the sidewalk and road seats.	43	7.9%
Other	59	10.9%
The whole thing.	543	100.0%

가) As for the improvement needed to use public facilities in Guri-si for the elderly, 39.4% said that they would install elevators rather than stairs, followed by clean and clean toilets at 23.2%.

<Table IV-> Improvement necessary for the use of public facilities³

(Unit: Name, %)

Classification	Number of respondents (name)	an effective percentage
a clean and clean bathroom	103	23.2%
Installation of escalators or elevators rather than stairs	175	39.4%
an easy-to-understand sign	38	8.6%
Exclusive windows and queues for the elderly and the elderly	51	11.5%
a kind guide	39	8.8%
Other	38	8.6%
The whole thing.	444	100.0%

