

(To be printed and cut into 4 separate strips prior to the session)

1: Female patient, 94 years old and frail, in severe condition.

2: Male patient 35 years old, mild case with important job, keen to go back to work.

3: Female patient, 13 years old, moderate presentation, with parents demanding non-validated/ non-available treatment (e.g. chloroquine, vaccination).

4: Male patient, 40 years old, moderate case, but obese, smoking, diabetic, and with recent myocardial infarction.