

GAIN Micro-Nutrient Supplementation - Multiple micronutrients supplementation - Infants and young children

Programme: GAIN Micro-Nutrient Supplementation

Programme Data

Programme Description

Program type

National

References

<http://www.gainhealth.org/countries>

Implementing organisations

- Bilateral and donor agencies and lenders
 - Chinese Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Funding sources

- International NGOs
 - Global Alliance for Improved Nutrition (GAIN)

Action data

Start date	November 2003
End date	March 2006
Country(ies):	China
Status:	Completed
Place:	National population
Topic:	Multiple micronutrients supplementation
Target group:	Infants and young children
Age group:	Children 6-23 months
Delivery:	Other
Other delivery:	Public sector delivery
Implementation details :	Multi-nutrient Powder (Ying.Yang Bao); Besides iodine, iron, folate, zinc and vitamins A, B and D, the multi-nutrient Powder contains additional micronutrients as per guidelines of the Technical Advisory Group on Home Fortification (http://hftag.gainhealth.org/products/micronutrient-powders-mnp) and GAIN Nutritional Guidelines for Complementary Foods and Complementary Food Supplements (http://www.gainhealth.org/sites/www.gainhealth.org/files/GAIN%20IYCN%20g...)

Typical problems Solutions