

GAIN Micro-Nutrient Supplementation - Lipid-based nutrient supplementation - Infants and young children

Programme: GAIN Micro-Nutrient Supplementation

Programme Data

Programme Description

Program type

National

References

<http://www.gainhealth.org/countries>

Implementing organisations

- Private Sector
  - Details:
more
1 national private-sector partner

Funding sources

- International NGOs
  - Global Alliance for Improved Nutrition (GAIN)

Action data

Start date	January 2010
End date	January 2015
Country(ies):	South Africa
Status:	On-going
Area:	Urban Rural Peri-urban
Place:	South Africa
Topic:	Lipid-based nutrient supplementation
Target group:	Infants and young children
Age group:	Children 6-23 months
Delivery:	Commercial Other
Other delivery:	Market-based delivery
Implementation details :	lipid-based Nutrient Supplement & Micro.Nutrient Powder; Micronutrients: Iron, Zinc, Vitamin A, Vitamin D, Folic acid, B vitamins. Besides iodine, iron, folic acid, zinc and vitamins A, B and D, the multi-nutrient Powder contains additional micronutrients as per guidelines of the Technical Advisory Group on Home Fortification ( http://hftag.gainhealth.org/products/micronutrient-powders-mnp ) and GAIN Nutritional Guidelines for Complementary Foods and Complementary Food Supplements ( http://www.gainhealth.org/sites/www.gainhealth.org/files/GAIN%20IYCN%20g... )
Outcome indicator(s):	.
Outcome reported by social determinants:	None

Other actions from same programme

GAIN Micro-Nutrient Supplementation - Multiple micronutrients supplementation - Infants and young children

eLENA Link

Supplementary feeding in community settings for promoting child growth

Food supplementation in children with moderate acute malnutrition