

GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) School feeding program - School fruit and vegetable scheme - School age children (SAC)

Programme: GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) School feeding program

Programme Data

Programme Description

These programmes and actions were reported by countries for the 2nd WHO Global Nutrition Policy Review 2016-2017 module on actions related to school health and nutrition programmes. Programme objectives: reduce or prevent child undernutrition (stunting, wasting, micronutrient deficiencies); improve academic performance; reduce food insecurity and hunger. Components of the school health and nutrition programme include: training of school staff on nutrition; standards or rules for foods and beverages available in schools; hygienic cooking facilities and clean eating environment in schools; provision of school meals/school feeding programme; school fruit and vegetable scheme; deworming; nutrition education included in school curriculum; extracurricular nutrition education; physical education in school curriculum; standards for marketing of food and non-alcoholic beverages to children in school setting; monitoring of children's growth; safe drinking water available free of charge; adequate sanitation and hygiene facilities in schools; school gardens.

Program type

Other

References

WHO (2018) Global Nutrition Policy Review. Country progress in creating enabling policy environments for promoting healthy diets and nutrition http://www.who.int/nutrition/publications/policies/global_nut_policyrevi...

The Global Nutrition Policy Review 2016–2017 is the report of the second comprehensive analysis of nutrition-related policy environment, coordination mechanisms, available capacities and actions being taken in 176 Member States (91%) and one area which responded to the survey carried out between July 2016 and December 2017.

Implementing organisations

- Government
 - Health
 - Education and research
 - Details:
 - more
 - Ministry of Education, Ministry of Health

Action data

Start date	January 1999
Country(ies):	Jordan
Topic:	School fruit and vegetable scheme
Target group:	School age children (SAC)
Delivery:	Kindergarten/school
Implementation details :	All children at the targeted schools are eligible to participate in the school fruit and vegetable scheme. The fruit and vegetable scheme is free for all children. Types of fruit and vegetable products provided: fresh fruit and vegetables. Provided daily. Fruit and vegetables are procured locally.
Coverage level (%):	350000 students

Typical problems Solutions

Other actions from same programme

GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) School feeding program - Deworming - School age children (SAC)

GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) School feeding program - Extracurricular nutrition education - School age children (SAC)

GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) School feeding program - Home, school or community gardening - School age children (SAC)

GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) School feeding program - Monitoring children's growth in schools - School age children (SAC)

GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) School feeding program - Nutrition education included in school curriculum - School age children (SAC)

GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) School feeding program - School feeding programmes - School age children (SAC)

GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) School feeding program - Standards for marketing of food and non-alcoholic beverages to children in school setting - School age children (SAC)

GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) School feeding program - Standards or rules for foods and beverages available in schools - School age children (SAC)