

GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) Guide for Healthy School Canteen Management - Vending machines not allowed in schools - School age children (SAC)

Programme: GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) Guide for Healthy School Canteen Management

Programme Data

Programme Description

These programmes and actions were reported by countries for the 2nd WHO Global Nutrition Policy Review 2016-2017 module on actions related to school health and nutrition programmes. Programme objectives: reduce or prevent child undernutrition (stunting, wasting, micronutrient deficiencies); reduce or prevent childhood overweight or obesity; foster healthy diet and lifestyle habits; educate children and improve knowledge about healthy diet and lifestyle habits; improve children's skills (e.g. cooking, food hygiene); improve school enrolment; improve school attendance; improve academic performance; reduce food insecurity and hunger; support the agriculture sector by creating farm to school linkages (e.g. cereals, milk, fruit and vegetables supply). Components of the school health and nutrition programme include: training of school staff on nutrition; standards or rules for foods and beverages available in schools; ban on vending machines in schools; hygienic cooking facilities and clean eating environment in schools; provision of school meals/school feeding programme; school milk scheme; deworming; nutrition education included in school curriculum; extracurricular nutrition education; physical education in school curriculum; standards for marketing of food and non-alcoholic beverages to children in school setting; monitoring of children's growth; safe drinking water available free of charge; adequate sanitation and hygiene facilities in schools; school gardens.

<http://nutrition.moh.gov.my/wp-content/uploads/penerbitan/buku/Panduan%20>

https://www.facebook.com/bahagianpemakanankkm/photos/pcb.** ...

Program type

Other

References

WHO (2018) Global Nutrition Policy Review. Country progress in creating enabling policy environments for promoting healthy diets and nutrition http://www.who.int/nutrition/publications/policies/global_nut_policyrevi...

The Global Nutrition Policy Review 2016–2017 is the report of the second comprehensive analysis of nutrition-related policy environment, coordination mechanisms, available capacities and actions being taken in 176 Member States (91%) and one area which responded to the survey carried out between July 2016 and December 2017.

Implementing organisations

- Government
 - Health
 - Education and research
 - Details:
more
Ministry of Education, Health
- Other
 - Details:
more
Parents-Teachers Associations

Action data

Start date January 2011
Country(ies): Malaysia
Topic: Vending machines not allowed in schools
Target group: School age children (SAC)
Delivery: Kindergarten/school

Typical problems Solutions

Other actions from same programme

GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) Guide for Healthy School Canteen Management - Deworming - School age children (SAC)

GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) Guide for Healthy School Canteen Management - Extracurricular nutrition education - School age children (SAC)

GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) Guide for Healthy School Canteen Management - Home, school or community gardening - School age children (SAC)

GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) Guide for Healthy School Canteen Management - Monitoring children's growth in schools - School age children (SAC)

GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) Guide for Healthy School Canteen Management - Nutrition education included in school curriculum - School age children (SAC)

GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) Guide for Healthy School Canteen Management - School feeding programmes - School age children (SAC)

GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) Guide for Healthy School Canteen Management - School milk scheme - School age children (SAC)

GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) Guide for Healthy School Canteen Management - Standards for marketing of food and non-alcoholic beverages to children in school setting - School age children (SAC)

GNPR 2016-2017: School health and nutrition (q11) Guide for Healthy School Canteen Management - Standards or rules for foods and beverages available in schools - School age children (SAC)